Foreword

Out of the mist we call the past
A stately Roman doth appear.
In his hand a scroll there is
By name, "The Benedictus".
Meaning vague, 'tis not strange
For scroll and man were dust from whence you sprang.
And so to reader I do explain
The meaning—That which has gone before.
(A.G.H.)

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1950, would like to dedicate this volume of the Benedictus to our parents who have given us their time, efforts, and encouragement that we might have this education to enjoy and use throughout the remainder of our lives.

We entered the first year of high school as green freshmen with Miss Nukamp and Mr. Taylor as our class sponsors. The following students were elected for our class officers:

| | | | |

| President..... | Joe French | Secretary | Betty Rohl |
| Vice-President | Bonnie Blum | Treasurer | Charles Adams |

Our Oompah candidates were Phyllis Beasley and Robert Titzer.

When the basketball season rolled around our attendants were Bonnie Blum and Lucile Kuhns.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year we had three new members to enroll in our class—Edgar Wilderman, Sue Tribble, and Mary Lu Miller.

We elected the following class officers:

| | | | |
|----------------------|---------------|-------------------------------|----------------|
| President | Bonnie Blum | Secretary and Treasurer | George Johnson |
| Vice-President. | Roger Borders | | |

This year Miss Graper and Mr. West were our sponsors.

Our Oompah candidates were Verla Smith and George Johnson and our basketball attendants were Phyllis Beasley and Lucile Kuhns.

At the beginning of the second semester another new member, Melvin Burger, enrolled in the class.

With the beginning of our Junior year, we lost six of our classmates—Kenneth Reving, Geraine Fougnes, Joan King, Edw. Sieb, Robert Titzer, and Lyle Pearl Odom. That year our officers were:

| | | | |
|---------------------|----------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| President..... | Mel Burger | Secretary | Phyllis Beasley |
| Vice-President..... | Joe French | Treasurer | Lucile Kuhns |
| | Reporter | | Kenneth Carter |

Mrs. Brown and Mr. West were our sponsors that year. We received our class sweaters and class rings. Were we proud! The Oompah candidates were Rosina Robeson and Norman Rexing. Our basketball attendants were Verla Smith and Rosina Robeson. On December 2, we presented the comedy, "Make Yourself at Home." At the end of the Junior year we donated $25.00 to the curtain fund. On May 3, we held our Junior-Senior Dinner-Dance in the old gym. It was quite an affair!

Finally we have reached our last year! We are now the sophisticated Seniors!

Pat Carithers enrolled and stayed with us two months. She returned to Florida for the winter months then came back to F.B.H.S. on February 14.

Our class officers were the following students:

| | | | |
|----------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------|
| President | Charles Adams | Secretary..... | Bonnie Blum |
| Vice-President. | Joe French | Treasurer..... | Roger Borders |
| | Reporter | | Lois Roberts |

We elected Pat Carithers and Kenneth Carter as our Oompah candidates.

Bonnie Blum was elected basketball queen and her attendants were Betty Rohl and Lucile Kuhns.

Two of our members, Joe Downey Floyd and Shirley Woods, were elected Yell Leaders.

Finally we began work on the Benedictus under the direction of Mrs. Brown and Mr. West.

This ends our four joyful years of high school. We wish the same to all the underclassmen.

Class Prophecy of 1950

Enroute from New York to Brazil by Pan-American World Airways Flight No. 10, I suddenly learned from the stewardess, VERLA SMITH, that we were to be grounded in New Orleans. I was heading the plane which was caused by a hurricane over the Caribbean Sea, when suddenly I realized that it was the Mardi Gras season. This colorful festival was introduced about 1857 by the French colonists who settled here. Strolling along the bustling waterfront, I noticed a sign, "World's Largest Market", NORMAN REXING, Proprietor, and I knew that one of my classmates was on the road to success. Having to the meter office I was amazed to find CAROLYN TITZER, my private secretary, pushing an electric typewriter. She told me that Norman had a business deal with some world famous scientific producers. The inner office door opened and the two kings, DONALD CRAVER King Wheat of 1900 and EDDIE MENY, King Wheat of 1960, stepped out. After visiting with Donald and Eddie, I continued reminiscing with Norman. About that time the lovely lady and PHYLLIS BEASLEY, you guessed it, Norman's wife, was telling him a list of groceries to be purchased on his way home from the office.

At closing time we drove Norman's car, "The Wilkerson Custom", built by the Wilkerson Corporation of which JACK WILKERSON is president. Jack's hobby of car driving paid off this year. In 1950, to win the 100 mile Memorial Day races at Indianapolis, he was given a kiss by ROSINA ROBERTSON, now a famous movie star.

Riding down French Market Street to the local Kroger Store, I was very much amazed to learn that JOE BECK, who had married VONDA JONES, now managed this and 456 other Kroger Store.

We then continued to Norman's home in "Garden District."

After dinner I suggested that we go to the Metropolitan Opera House. PAT CARROLLERS, pianist and BETTY TOLLE, soprano, were featured in a musical production. Although Betty had been engaged to CHARLES ADAMS who plays professional baseball with the New York Yankees, she now seems to favor the oil-magnate, EDGAR RAY WILDERMAN, with his dirty millions.

Going to the "500 Club", we found JOE FLOYD conducting a jazz band. Then the Mistress of Ceremonies, NINA MARTIN, announced that the famous movie star, MAX GENTRY, whose latest film, "Gerson Did It Again" was playing there, would sing "Mammy".

At the Old Absinthe House we found ROLLAN JONES and his business associate ROBERT ROBERTS. These two charming people are now playing Frank Alfie and Molly on the television station YUC located in the thriving metropolis of Fort Branch. They said that ROB PHILLIPS was now Chief Engineer at YUC.

Phyllis said that BONNIE BLUM had married a certain professional basketball player, and was living in New York City near the Madison Square Gardens.

MARY LU MILLER succeeded in becoming a Laboratory Technician but lost ROGER BORDERS. Roger, who wanted to be the famous undertaker, became Borders the butcher now giving cash shaves in New York City.

JEAN SHEPARD is now a Missionary to China and MARILYN BELL seems quite happy as a nurse in the New York General Hospital. JOE FRENCH is looking for young men interested in a career of swabbing the decks of the ship U.S.S. Missouri, which he now commands. Let's hope I don't go anywhere again.

I was very much shocked but pleased to learn that MERLE GIER had decided to become one of the finest priests in this country. KENNETH CARTER is still at Purdue. No, he isn't a student, he's a Professor of Psychology. GARLAND WILHITE, who also is at Purdue, is coaching the basketball team which has established a fine record, undefeated no less.

HELEN DILLBECK now teaches Social Studies at Fort Branch High School, taking Mr. Weaver's position after his retirement. The student seem to like this arrangement very well.

SUE TRIBBLE and SHIRLEY WOODS, both Interior Decorators, are now redecorating the home of the United Nations at Lake Success. KENNETH HOLZMEYER is the United States Consul to Russia. LUCILLE KUHNS gained recognition by becoming the first woman Governor of Indiana.

The next morning the weather cleared and I was again on my way to Brazil, happy to have heard from my former classmates.

South America take it away!

EARL DORSAM and PHYLLIS BEASLEY.
